The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 30. to Saturday April 3. 1736.

Paderborn, April 1, N. S.

THIS Evening the Right Honourable the Lord Delawar arrived here from Warendorp, having been by the Badneſs of the Roads three Days and three Nights in his Journey from Utrecht to that Place. His Lordſhip intends to ſet out early to Morrow Morning for Caſſel, in his Way to Gotha.

Hague, April 10, N. S. A Reſolution of the States of Holland concerning the Reduction of the Troops of this State, has been delivered to the States General, who have cauſed it to be ſent to the other reſpective Provinces for their Opinion thereupon. The Orders for changing the Garriſons are deferred till the Propoſition of reducing the Forces be ſettled. The Departure of King Staniſlaus from Konigsberg on the 27th of laſt Month is confirmed; he was expected at Berlin on the 11th or 12th Inſtant on his Way to Paris: He travels by the Name of the Count de Ligny.

DUBLIN.

To his Grace Lionel, Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled. Preſented to his Grace on the 24th of March.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave, before a Period is put to this Seſſion, to congratulate your Grace upon the remarkable Unanimity and Temper with which it has been carried on, and the happy Concluſion to which it now approaches; which we doubt not will be as agreeable to his Majeſty, as it is beneficial to his faithful People.

We ſhould not deſerve this Happineſs, if we did not with the ſincereſt Gratitude acknowledge it to be owing to the ſteady Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Grace's Adminiſtration; through the whole Courſe of which you have ſhewn, that you had no other Views than his Majeſty's Service, and the real Intereſt of this Kingdom. So diſintereſted, ſo juſt and prudent a Conduct, could not but produce that univerſal Eſteem and Affection for your Grace, which this whole Nation upon every Occaſion expreſſes.

The Benefits which by your Grace's Influence have been derived to us, from his Majeſty's Royal Goodneſs, are ſo many and ſo known, that it would be as needleſs as it is difficult to enumerate them; but we cannot omit returning our particular Thanks to your Grace, for the late eminent Inſtance of Royal Favour which you have obtained for us, whereby private Property is more effectually ſecured, and the Laws become a more certain Rule by which every Man's Right may be determined.

It will ever diſtinguiſh your Grace's Government, that from the Beginning of it we have ſeen the reaſonable and juſt Demands of the Crown, always anſwered by the moſt chearful and ready Compliance of the People; and in Return, the moſt gracious Conceſſions made to the People, of whatever they judged neceſſary to ſecure and increaſe their Welfare and Happineſs. You my Lord, who are ſo happy as to be employed in conveying theſe mutual Advantages, have a Right to, and can never fail of that Reward, which your Grace (like other great Benefactors of Mankind) ſeems to have moſt in View; to be beloved and reſpected by the preſent Age, and remembred with Honour by Poſterity.

We muſt ever acknowledge his Majeſty could not have given us a more deſirable Proof of his gracious Acceptance of our Duty and Loyalty to his ſacred Perſon, and of our inviolable Zeal and Attachment to his Royal Houſe, than by continuing your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom; the Intereſt of which, you have in ſo diſtinguiſhed a Manner promoted. And we firmly rely upon your Grace's Goodneſs, that when you return to his Royal Preſence, you will make ſuch Repreſentations of the ſteady Loyalty and Affection of his Subjects of Ireland, as may incline his Majeſty to think us not unworthy of the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection.

To which Addreſs his Grace was pleaſed to give this Anſwer.

My Lords,

THIS very kind Addreſs is a convincing Proof, that a Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of his People, can never fail of gaining your Eſteem. I ſhall never forget this publick Mark of your Approbation, which I conſider not only as Honour done me, but a laſting Obligation laid upon me, to promote the Welfare of this Kingdom to the utmoſt of my Power.

St. James's March 30.

This Day the Count du Hautoy, Grand Seneſchal of Lorrain and Bar, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Leave of the Queen, in her Majeſty's Apartment; to which he was introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham, her Majeſty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, April 1.

This Day the Count du Hautoy, had a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduc'd by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He from thence went to his private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

And of their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia and Caroline.

And